

Responsible Conduct of Research Part 2 19-20 September 2022

The University of Zimbabwe Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, Research Support Centre in partnership with Partnership in Education Training and Research Advancement (PETRA) program is delighted to announce a 2-day virtual training workshop on Responsible Conduct of Research: Part 2 on the 19-20 September 2022.

Target Group

Researchers, junior faculty, undergraduate and postgraduate students who would like to build skills for research integrity and scientific professionalism. Researchers and Fellows funded by National Institutes of Health (NIH) Programs are specifically encouraged to participate in this workshop.

Course Description

Objectives: By the end of course, participants will be able to:

- understand the core areas of Responsible Conduct of Research
- highlight the importance of Responsible Conduct of Research
- identify ethical issues/concerns and provide strategies to tackle these

Topics:

1. Collaborative research including collaborations with industry and investigators and institutions in other countries
2. Data acquisition and analysis; laboratory tools
3. Secure and ethical data use; data confidentiality, management, sharing and ownership
4. Responsible authorship and publication
5. Safe research environments'
6. The scientist as a responsible member of society

Venue: Virtual

Time: 9:30:00 – 13:00hrs

How to apply

Kindly download the application form by clicking here and send it to: rscsacoreoffice@gmail.com cc. progressgomo@gmail.com or use the google form link Registration link . You can also visit the RSC Website at www.uzchsrsc.ac.zw for the registration form. For more information, visit University of Zimbabwe Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, Research Support Centre, Parirenyatwa Hospital Campus, Mazowe Street, Harare or call +263 8644290942 or +263 777 475 745

Application Deadline: 16 September 2022